OC PANTERAS CHAPTER'S KIP CYPRUS PRIVATE COLLECTION TOUR

By Al Arakawa

I ALMOST RAN OVER OUR HOST! Mr. Kip Cyprus, our gracious host, offered to give my Pantera a moment of glory on his display turntable. Not in this universe could I have turned down that offer. After we moved his immaculate red Vallelunga from the slow spinning platform, I sprinted to my car and carefully drove into the warehouse where his collection of restored cars and motorcycles was on display. Five feet in front of my Pantera, Kip walk backwards as I turned my wheels in one direction then the other following his instructions until.....suddenly, in a complete fail, my clutch pedal went flat to the floor. It was impending doom! The Pantera lurched forward coming to a stop only a foot before it would have taken him off at the knees. The nightly news report on a local channel would have included all the stomach-churning words: "tragic," "horrible," "untimely," "many witnessed." I felt the need for therapy. Fortunately, it all ended well with my car gleefully spinning, oblivious to the near tragedy.

Kip's collection was remarkable in its personality. The fully restored Vallelunga, number 20 of the 53 built, was purchased a couple of years ago at a Monterey auction. Others in the collection included his father's 1935 Packard, an Alfa Romero support van, a Mercedes-Benz AMG GT, and a Cadillac powered '54 Chevy. He described the history of each car and then pointed our attention to the "Wall of Motorcycles." Four bikes high and four wide, it represented significant examples of most major manufacturers. A specially designed forklift positioned each on their respective custom-designed shelf. Like the cars, they are all taken out for spins out and around town. After the tour, Kip treated the group (about 35 Chapter members) to a delicious lunch served from a restored liquor bar that could easily grace the comfortable home of any well-heeled celebrity. He then hopped (OK, gingerly slid) into the Vallelunga, started the tiny 1.6 liter engine and blasted down the driveway and onto the street. We didn't see license plates on the car and prayed that he returned without experiencing the long arm of the law. He did, and we all sighed in relief, ending a great day.

Orange County Panteras extends a big "Thank You" to Kip Cyprus for his incredible hospitality and to our past chapter president, Scott Couchman, who arranged the memorable tour.
