Our Saturday 9/18 visit to Peterson Automotive Museum was Great!

We had 24+ attendees for our docent led tour and our tour of "the Vault".

The vault is the basement where cars not on display reside.

We were not allowed to take pictures so you just had to be there. We saw many pre-war cars, cars of historic value, movie star cars, significant race cars and movie cars. We saw the Green Hornet, Greased Lightning, Herbie, and I'm pretty sure Christine gave me a dirty look "dada-dada-dada".

The "Elvis" Pantera was promised to be in the vault, but was missing when we were there. We found later that it had been moved upstairs on display.

Someone told me the museum moved it to the 3rd floor for the OCP visit.

I have my doubts on that, but I like the story so I'm going to run with it! .

Special Guest Speaker

Wallace Wyss

Wallace Wyss (rhymes with Reese) is a name that might sound familiar to those of you who have the book DeTomaso . He also wrote a couple more DeTomaso books with the Adlers, and was a friend of Tom Tjaarda, the Pantera's designer. We invited him to talk for a few minutes on how his fascination with the brand started way back BEFORE the Pantera around 1968. Also, in the 40 or so years since he wrote that first book, he became a fine artist and he's bringing some of his fine art prints, from his paintings plus some old publicity photos, all for sale to finance new projects....

TUAYP will feature Jay Stewart's gorgeous blue over black Pre-L
Jay will have the car onsite to go over the features.
